Hours: Monday — Thursday: 9am-6pm

Friday: 9am-1pm; 2nd & 4th Saturday: 9am-1pm

This program is from Champion for Children's Positive Parenting Partnership (Triple P).

These services are available to all eligible persons, regardless of race, gender, age disability, or religion. Funding for this project was provided by the United States Department of Health and Human Services, Administration for Children and Families, Grant: 90FM0088-01-00. Any opinions, findings, and conclusions or recommendations expressed in this material are those of the author (s) and do not necessarily reflect the views of the United States Department of Health and Human Services, Administration for Children and Families.

During this discussion group, parents will identify some examples of common forms of disobedience and some reasons why children have difficulty learning to follow instructions. A number of positive parenting strategies are then introduced to help parents develop a personal plan to help their children follow instructions, teach their child limits, and also to manage disobedience when necessary.

Childcare and refreshments are provided (register for childcare and group discussion by April 10th.)
