Is it time for THAT talk with your preteen? We offer a parent/child Teen Talk for Boys, taught by a professional instructor from St. Joseph's Children's Wellness and Safety Center, as an educational introduction to this sensitive subject. This informative and age appropriate courses introduce parents and their pre-teen/teen to the topic of puberty, conception and abstinence in a relaxed yet professional atmosphere. Teen Talk for Boys is a great starting place when it is time to have "the talk" with your child. There is no charge to attend, however a parent/legal guardian must attend with child and registration is required.
