Is it time for THAT talk with your preteen? We offer a parent/child Teen Talk for Girls, taught by a professional instructor from St. Joseph's Children's Wellness and Safety Center, as an educational introduction to this sensitive subject.

This informative and age appropriate courses introduce parents and their pre-teen/teen to the topics of puberty, conception and abstinence in a relaxed, yet professional atmosphere. Teen Talk for Girls is a great starting place when it is time to have "the talk" with your child. There is no charge to attend, however a parent/legal guardian must attend with child and registration is required.
