What is a fairy tale king to do when it's time for his daughter to marry? He places a pea under 100 mattresses, of course, in order to find a prince sensitive enough to deserve such a beautiful princess! But what happens when, night after night, each potential suitor fails to discover the pea? Perhaps the unlikely young man in the boxing gloves deserves a chance to try. Inspired by Hans Christian Andersen's classic fairy tale, this new adaptation is full of comedic hijinks as two actors frantically portray over a dozen roles! Children are sure to roar with laughter while learning the importance of seeing past weaknesses to a person's strengths. The show is appropriate for ages 5 and up.
