116 W. Fletcher Ave.

Tampa, FL 33612

Hours: Monday—Thursday: 9am to 6pm
Friday & Saturday: 9am to 1pm

This program is from Champion for Children's Positive Parenting Partnership (Triple P).

These services are available to all eligible persons, regardless of race, gender, age disability, or religion. Funding for this project was provided by the United States Department of Health and Human Services, Administration for Children and Families, Grant: 90FM0088-01-00. Any opinions, findings, and conclusions or recommendations expressed in this material are those of the author (s) and do not necessarily reflect the views of the United States Department of Health and Human Services, Administration for Children and Families.

This is a seminar for parents of children ages 10 and older and introduces the six key elements to help teenagers become responsible. Specific ideas about how to teach and encourage responsibility include:

1. Taking part in family decision-making
2. Being respectful and considerate
3. Getting involved in family activities
4. Developing a healthy lifestyle
5. Being reliable
6. Being assertive

Childcare and refreshments are provided (register for childcare and seminar by June 8th.)
