Hours: Monday—Thursday: 9am to 6pm
Friday & Saturday: 9am to 1pm

This program is from Champion for Children's Positive Parenting Partnership (Triple P).

These services are available to all eligible persons, regardless of race, gender, age disability, or religion. Funding for this project was provided by the United States Department of Health and Human Services, Administration for Children and Families, Grant: 90FM0088 -01-00. Any opinions, findings, and conclusions or recommendations expressed in this material are those of the author (s) and do not necessarily reflect the views of the United States Department of Health and Human Services, Administration for Children and Families.

During this seminar parents are encouraged to share their experiences of destructive behavior from their children, and discuss some of the reasons children fight. During this discussion, parents will learn the skills that children need to be able to cooperate and get along with others. Parents learn how to teach skills such as sharing, communicating and being gentle. They also prepare plans to manage times when fighting and aggression do occur.

Childcare and refreshments are provided (register for childcare and seminar by June 26th.)
